Despite Rain– Kelly's Classic A Success!

Hurricane Lilly Pounds Walden Ponds

Heavy rainfall could not deter 125 golfers, who enjoyed lunch, a wet day on the links, silent and live auction opportunities and plenty of food and beverages to come out and support the 4th annual Kelly's Classic. With the original date rained out, our wonderful volunteers pushed ahead with a rescheduled day of golf for October 4, 2002. But soon after the shotgun start, the torrential rain left over from hurricane Lilly drenched Walden Ponds—and most of our golfers. Despite getting 2-3 inches of rainfall for the next 4 hours, several teams actually finished play. Congratulations to Bill Augspurger's group with an amazing 11 under par to capture the title of the 4th annual Kelly's Classic. Most golfers stayed to enjoy dinner and the exciting live auction. A special thank you to Plan-It Now, Inc., Cincinnati's premier Conference Planning Enthusiasts, for planning and organizing the entire event. We would like to thank Penn Station for providing lunch on both days and Dan Vamdell from The Kroger Com- pany for all the refreshments. Congratulations to Dave Whitton, our grand prize winner who won a trip for two for 8 days and 7 nights to The Grand Cayman Islands. Overall, the event was most successful raising over $20,000. Thank you to all the golfers and volunteers who battled the weather to help our cause. We truly appreciate your continued dedication and support.

Students For Kelly's Place

Students from The Immaculate Heart of Mary School, Cincinnati, Ohio, recently presented The Kelly Clark Foundation with a check for $835. Last year, as part of their study on immigration and family heritage, the students gathered ethnic recipes from their family and teachers. Under the guidance of Ms. Susan Homan, "Fifth Grade Recipes from 'Round The Globe" was published. The class requested all proceeds from the sale of their cookbooks be donated to Kelly's Place. We wish to thank them for their very generous donation.
